Ye Olde Folks' Concert.

The Old Folks' Concert given under the auspices of the Congregational Ladies' Aid society and directed by M. M. Taplin, was a success. The chorus was very good and dressed in the quaint old costume of Washington's time they made an interesting and attractive appearance. Miss Madeline Randall of St. Johnsbury, entertained us with graceful and artistic folk dancing. These dances were new to many of us, but they were appreciated and greatly enjoyed by those most accustomed to this form of amusement. Her readings were also good. Mrs. Newland of Newport sang beautifully, playing her own accompaniment on an old time melodeon. Other specialties were given by members of the chorus in a pleasing manner. Excellent music was furnished by Webster's orchestra. The entertainment was well attended and a good sum will be cleared for the organ fund.
